- Zero Students Last Year 10 Students This Year
 - What's the set-aside amount?
- 10 Students Last Year Zero Students This Year
 - What's the set-aside amount?
 - What are we supposed to do with it?
- What about the private school students who are identified after October 1?

- What if the private school refuses to participate?
 - Documentation
 - Must still serve students at other private schools
- What's the LEA's responsibility for finding parentally placed private school students?
 - Child find activities similar to those done for the LEA's public school students
- The private schools just want SMART boards. Can we use our equitable services set-aside to purchase them?

- Are Residential Care Centers considered private schools?
 - Yes if they meet the definition of a private school in Wisconsin, they are private schools under the equitable participation provision of IDEA.
 - The Key: Equitable services are provides to parentally placed private school students. So although RCCs are private schools, the student has to be placed by a parent to be included in the calculation.

- We bill all of our Speech and Language therapists to Medicaid. Do we have to use IDEA funds to provide services to private school students? We're providing the services, we just want to use local funds.
 - Yes the equitable services set-aside amount under IDEA must be used. To use local funds instead of the IDEA funds would be considered supplanting.

Unusual Situation

- For the first time in years, the private school in our district will enroll a student with a disability in Kindergarten this fall. According to the regs, we do not set-aside funds for FY 2015 because the count from Oct. 1, 2013, was zero. Are we still required to complete the other equitable services steps, such as consultation with the private schools and developing a services plan?
 - No − If there is no required set-aside amount, then there is no reason to develop a services plan.
